It is a Lincoln Law School tradition to present a special award to the spouse, family member or anyone of importance to you that you feel helped you make it through the law school experience.

This award is traditionally presented to the recipient at the graduation dinner by the Dean. Please fill out the following information if you would like to have this award presented on your behalf. (Note: Most graduates do participate in this award program. If you plan on having a special someone as a guest with you that night, don't forget to fill out this portion because your guest may feel left out.)
